

Name: _____ Period: _____ Number: _____

Modifier Usage Well vs. Good

Directions: In each of the following sentences, #1--circle the correct modifier in parentheses. #2--Underline the word it modifies and #3--label it as Action Verb or Subject.

action verb

Example: Lisa pitched (good, well) to help her team win the game.

1. Our old toaster works as (good, well) as a new one.
2. Eggplant caponata tastes (good, well) as part of a traditional Italian dinner.
3. I can't type very (good, well) on this computer.
4. A little hardship is (good, well) for one's character.
5. This lawn mower doesn't cut (good, well) anymore.
6. Some light cars don't handle (good, well) on rough roads.
7. A quick review would be (good, well) for all of us.
8. The doctor said that I was (good, well) enough to leave the hospital.
9. Brush your teeth (good, well) after eating.
10. School courses are easier if one can read (good, well).